Are you looking for some expert advice on growing onions? Join us for this comprehensive and informative 2-day course on onions. Covering most aspects of onion production under drip and sprinkler irrigation in a workshop environment where questions will be answered from the floor.

Credits are being applied for

“The Green Bridge” Dr. Mike Thornton, University of Idaho
“Onion Nutrition” Dr. Don Horneck, Oregon State University
“Irrigation Scheduling” Dr. Clint Shock, Oregon State University
“Secret Vault Advocacy” Erik Feibert, Oregon State University
“Best Seed Variety for Drip or Sprinkler” Jim Christophsersen, Bejo Seed
“Yellow Nut Sedge Control” Dr. Joel Felix, Oregon State University
“Iris Yellow Spot Virus” Stuart Reitz, Oregon State University
“Variable Rate Fumigation” Harry Kreeft, Nematologist/Plant Pathologist, Western Labs
“Grid Sampling” John Taberna Jr., Agronomist, Western Labs
“Onion Physiology” John Taberna Sr., Soil Scientist, Western Labs

Discussion Panel:
Kevin Kusk, L&L Ag
Paul Skeen, Skeen Farms
Craig Froerer, Froerer Farms
Reid Saito, KLG Farms

Class Times
Wednesday Feb. 4th 8am-5pm
Thursday Feb. 5th 8am-2pm
After 2pm on Thursday the floor is open to any questions until 5pm

Sign up starts November 1st 2014
Price $250 per person

This 2-day class will be held at the Lab in Parma, Idaho. Class includes breakfast, lunch and dinner on first day and breakfast and lunch on second day.

Call or email Kim or Cathy 800-658-3858    208-649-4360
*westernl@westernlaboratories.com 211 W. Highway 95 - Parma Idaho 83660
westernlaboratories.com